

PROGRAMME

Seminar-Workshop on Emerging Technologies for Libraries

26-28 July 2007
National Library of the Philippines (NLP) Auditorium
T.M. Kalaw Street, Ermita, Manila

Rationale

Technology has had a paramount impact on the character of libraries in the Philippines and elsewhere in the world. Many libraries have successfully migrated from their traditional image to that of a modern information providing entities. Libraries in the Philippines have kept pace with their counterparts from developed countries. However, technological innovations and discoveries seem to keep advancing and as such libraries have to keep abreast of these latest developments. Librarians who manage libraries thus have to be informed of these developments. The seminar-workshop will serve as an occasion for informing librarians of these emerging technologies for libraries.

Methodology

The seminar-workshop shall be conducted through lectures, discussions and open forums. Vendor presentation shall be conducted to give participants an opportunity to see for themselves the latest technologies in the field. An evaluation shall be conducted at the conclusion of the seminar-workshop. Seminar-Workshop papers shall be provided to the participants.
